HOKE SMITH IS DEFEATED

Hottest Campaign in History of Georgia Closed.

Atlanta, Ga,-Early returns from the state Democratic primaries indicate the defeat of Gov. Hoke Smith for a second term by Joseph M. Brown, whom Gov. Smith dismissed from the office of railfoad commissioner. The returns Indicate that Brown's majority over

Smith may be 25,000 or even more. Gov. Smith was overwhelmingly CYCLONE KILLS FOUR calling for strict railroad regulations and disfranchisement of the negro.

Much of the anti-Smith feeling was generated by the state prohibition law, which Gov. Smith signed, and the FARM panic, which threw many men out of employment, was used to capture the labor vote for Brown. It was openly charged during the campaign that Brown had the solid support of the whisky forces and the railroads. Gov. Smith was also opposed by all the coterie of politicians who had long dominated the state and whom he overthrew two years ago.

BANKS MUST PAY INTEREST

New Currency Law Changes Bules for Depositories.

Washington .- Under the terms of the aew currency law, passed by congress in the closing hours of the last session, banks in which funds of the government are deposited must hereafter pay Interest for the use of such funds. An exception is made in the case of those banking associations designated as pational depositors, in which funds are placed strictly for the use of the government's own expenses. There are outstanding about $72,060,000 of government funds on which interest must be paid by banks, and by an odd coincident a similar amount rests in depositories not subject to the tax. It was stated at the treasury department today that not only would the tax be charged on all deposits of government money made in the future, but that the tax would be payable on funds already deposited in banks from the time the new law became effective. The rate of interest chargeable is to be not lieve this lead may uncover the idenless than I per cent. and as much more as the secretary of the treasury may deem proper. For the present, however, the probable rate of interest will be 1 per cent. per annum.

GIRL RESCUED FROM NEGRO human arm and leg. "Tim" Sullivan Tears Up Marriage License in Wrath.

New York,-"Little Tim Sullivan," the East Side Tammany leader, constituted himself a committee of one today to prevent a pretty young white girl from marrying a negro after they had obtained a marriage license in the city hall. The girl lives in Sullivan's district and he refused to give her name. When he saw her and her companion turn away from the license bureau his interest was aroused. He asked to see the license, and when it was handed to him he tore it to bits.

"You have made a mistake," he said to the negro, who had clenched his fists threateningly. "This little girl lives in my district and she is under my protection. If you want a new marriage certificate you will have to mandamus the license clerk."

TEDDY WILL HUNT LIONS.

Going to Africa Soon After Close of His Term.

Washington.-Within a few weeks after March 4, 1909, Mr. Roosevelt proposes to start for British East Africa for a hunting trip of a year or more after big game. # GEN. BULLER DEAD EX - SENATOR DEAD

HE CONDUCTED OPERATIONS FOR THE RELIEF OF LADYSMITH.

FOUGHT BATTLE AT COLENSO

He Was at the Head of the British Army in the South African Transvaal.

London-Sir Redvers Henry Buller, the famous English general who conducted the operations for the relief of Ladysmith in the Boer war, died Tuesday. He was born in 1839. Gen. Sir Redvers Buller came into considerable prominence during the Boer war, between the Transvanl republic and Great Britain, in South Africa. In October, 1899, an army corps of 50,000 men was placed under orders for South Africa and Gen. Buller was gazetted as commander-inchief of the expedition. He was haifed as the man of the hour and he was credited with saying he would "cat Christmas dinner in Pretoria."

It was during the siege of Lady smith that Gen. Sir Redvers Buller came most prominently into the limelight. It was in December, 1899, that Ladysmith was besieged by the Boers. Sir George White was shut up in that city with 12,000 troops. When Gen. Buller reached Natal be allowed himself to be persuaded to abandon his original plan of campaign. He decided to go at once to the relief of Ladyemith-

Historians and military authorities have since agreed that Ladysmith did not need relief. White had plenty of stores and ammunition and could have held out for some time. Be that as it may, Gen. Buller started out to re-Heve Ladysmith.

On December 15, after a dreary wait, Buller attempted to force a passage across the Tugela river, at Colenso. His guns were ambushed and his entire force driven back by the

It was at this time that he sent the message to Sir George white which caused that general to surrenger Lady-

On the heels of this disaster, Gen. Buller was relieved of the command of the British army in South Africa and was succeeded by Lord Roberts, with Lord Kitchener under him.

Gen. Buller went back to England and in after years he made various attempts to explain his action in regard to Ladysmith.
